	Till further orders.	Circular Dated 26th March 2020 The Supreme Court of India shall continue to function and to hear matters involving extreme urgency, till further orders in this regard. The steps enlisted in the said Circular dated 23rd March 2020 shall continue to be followed by the Advocate-on-Record /Party in-person, and all others concerned. 1. For all matters involving extreme urgency, the AOR/Party-in-person is first required to file the petition/misc. application, preferably through the e-filing mode available on the SC Website. Thereafter, and upon completion of all formalities as per rules governing such petition/misc. application, the AOR/Party-in-person is permitted to file separately the signed and verified application containing a synopsis of extreme urgency not exceeding one page, at attention.sc@sci.nic.in, as per procedure detailed in para.3 of the said Circular dated 23.03.2020; 2. To obviate the inconvenience that may be faced due to unforeseen linkage issue of the 'Vidyo' video-conferencing, the AOR/Party-in-person are hereby requested to mention their alternative Skype, Facetime or WhatsApp contact details, if any, alongwith other details in their mentioning application.	https://main.sci.gov.in/pdf/cir/26032020_134544.pdf
	25th March 2020	The Hon'ble the Chief Justice of India has, after consulting his colleagues, directed that during the course of the ensuing week, a Bench of two Hon'ble Judges, as may be necessary to hear extremely urgent cases, will be available to transact judicial work. A Bench will be available for court work on Wednesday, 25 March, 2020 and the Cause list will be notified on the day previous to the hearing. The hearing may be conducted through video conferencing mode. Rooms with requisite facilities for this purpose in the Supreme Court premises are being made available for the convenience of the members of the Bar. Advocates on record and parties in person should indicate the extreme urgency of the matter in writing which will be listed at the discretion of the Hon'ble Presiding Judge.	https://main.sci.gov.in/pdf/LU/22032020_161235.pdf
	Circular dated 23.03.2020	The Hon'ble Bench(es) may be constituted to hear only matters involving extreme urgency, to be decided by the Hon'ble Presiding Judge of such Bench(es) on the basis of prayer made by Advocate on Record/party in person by way of a signed and verified application containing a synopsis of extreme urgency not exceeding one page, similar to urgency affidavit filed during Court Vacation periods. The said application shall be submitted only by e mail sent to mention.sc@sci.nic.in latest by 2:00 pm on the day preceding the day of the sitting of the Hon'ble Bench. The application must inter alia clearly contain the case details, contact details of the AOR/party in person including e mail id, mobile number and alternate number(s), camp/office address with Pin Code and Police Station, together with a prayer for exemption from filing duly affirmed affidavit in the prevailing circumstances with an undertaking that deficit court fees will be paid subsequently. The application must also contain a separate paragraph giving consent that the matter may be taken up through the Video Conferencing mode. In the application, the AOR/Party in Person must specify as to whether he would link through own desktop/mobile or would prefer to appear at such facility in the Supreme Court premises; 4. For the purpose of video conferencing, the app 'Vidyo' may be downloaded on personal desktop/laptop/mobile device by clicking download link available on http://ecourtvc.nic.in. The "Vidyo" application can also be downloaded from Google Play Store for Android phone and from Apple Store for iOS phone. The AOR/Party in Person may refer to Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) uploaded on the website of the Supreme Court i.e. www.sci.gov.in, for assistance in this regard; 5. Upon approval of the urgency by the Hon'ble Presiding Judge of the Bench, the case(s) would be enlisted in the cause list to be published on the website by evening hours on the day preceding the sitting of the Bench; in case the application praying for listing on grounds of extreme urgency is not allowed, the AOR would be permitted to make oral mentioning before the Hon'ble Presiding Judge, over the landline phone at His Lordship's residential office strictly between 10:30 am and 11:00 am; if upon such mentioning, the matter is allowed, the same would be listed as per directions of Hon'ble Judge. The list of telephone numbers of the Hon'ble Judges is available on the website of the Supreme Court of India i.e. www.sci.gov.in. See Circular for details.	https://main.sci.gov.in/pdf/cir/23032020_153213.pdf

		Order of the High Court of Bombay dated 26th March 2020 in Sua Moto W.P.No.2/2020 Matters are being entertained even if presented directly in court without affidavit or court fee. No procedural issues / objections are being raised on request are being attended to and parties can make request for urgent hearing through emails or other modes. Two courts are already notified for hearing of such matters, the dates of sitting are also notified. Registry also inform us that in extreme urgent matters, even at eleventh hour, parties can move court for appropriate interim order. In this situation, we find it appropriate to continue all interim orders which are operating till today and are not already continued by some other courts / authority including this court and the same shall remain in force till 30.04.2020, subject to liberty to parties to move for vacation of interim orders only in extreme urgent cases. Thus, all interim orders passed by this High Court at Mumbai, Aurangabad, Nagpur and Panaji as also all courts/Tribunal and authorities subordinate over which it has power of superintendence expiring before 30.04.2020, shall continue to operate till then. It is clarified that such interim orders which are not granted for limited duration and therefore, are to operate till further orders, shall remain unaffected by this order. Orders or decree for eviction, dispossession, demolition already passed by any court/Tribunal/Authority shall also remain in abeyance till then.	https://bombayhighcourt.nic.in/writereaddata/notifications/PDF/noticebom20200326170505.pdf
