

Juris Corp Enlarges Ownership: Inducts 5 Partners into Equity

Juris Corp has effective 1st April 2020, enlarged the ownership of the Firm. The Firm sees this as a means of being well positioned to serve its expanding clientele and achieve its vision.

The Firm is delighted to announce Arunabh Choudhary, Avikshit Moral, Nand Gopal Anand, Pratish Kumar and Shubhabrata Chakraborti joining in as the owners of Juris Corp. This is the ultimate recognition of leadership and reflects on willingness to fully participate in managing and leading a Professional Services Enterprise.

These owners of the Firm are based across the offices of the Firm in Mumbai, Delhi and Bangalore. This is the first time that internal leadership has been so recognised. This broad basing of the ownership of the Firm and the way ahead is built on Teamwork and Integrity; and recognises Innovation and Excellence at work.

The newly minted owners typify the legal excellence, client service standards and the values that Juris Corp stands for. Each of them in their own way have contributed significantly to the recent successes of the Firm and have been instrumental in pivoting Juris Corp into its current Avatar!

Juris Corp's co-founder Jayesh H commented: "This move builds upon the blueprint created by the Firm's next level of leadership for accelerating the Firm's growth. The owners are driven by value creation, which has steered the Firm on the path of continuous growth and excellence."

Juris Corp's other co-founder Talat Shah commented: "This collaborative approach is a testimony of the Firm's outlook for growth and diversification. It will also show the way ahead for Gen Z."
